New York City.

Dear Mr. Davis:-

Kindly deliver to bearer the collection of coins about which you telephoned me yesterday morning. As suggested by you, we will go over these and select the pieces which may be desirable for our cabinets, returning the remainder. Permit me to express our appreciation of your thought for us, and to renew my hope that before your return to the Orient you will find an opportunity of visiting our Society, and of permitting us to thank you personally for your gift.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.
